

Parenting the Connected Child

A Presentation by Jesse Miller

To parents of Spectrum High School, Colquitz Middle School, and Tillicum Elementary School

Are you comfortable parenting in the age of online communication?

Social media and mobile communications have changed our world and the way our children communicate and socialize – are you keeping up with changing technology?

Help your children navigate social media and the online world. Join us for a Parent Workshop with social media expert Jesse Miller.

This event has been funded by parent education grants from SD 61 along with PAC and school funds from each of the three schools. In conjunction with this presentation to parents, all students at Spectrum and Colquitz, and grades four and five students at Tillicum will attend presentations by Jesse Miller during school hours.

Educating students and parents at the same time by the same presenter is the best way to facilitate dialogue between parents and their children and to promote positive change with respect to the use of social media. There is tremendous power in everyone having the same information at the same time.
